RELEVANT ASPECTS IN 2024

Share buy-back programme

- > After receiving the appropriate regulatory authorisation, the Board of Directors agreed in March 2024 to approve and commence the third programme for the repurchase of treasury shares ("SBB" share buy-back) within the framework of the strategic plan for a maximum monetary amount of €500 million with the aim of reducing the share capital by means of their redemption.

In May 2024, the programme was completed after CaixaBank reached the maximum planned investment with the acquisition of a total of 104,639,681 treasury shares, representing 1.42% of the share capital. In order to comply with the programme's purpose, the Annual General Meeting held on 22 March 2024 agreed to reduce CaixaBank, S.A.'s share capital by €104,639,681 through the redemption of these shares, at a nominal value of one euro.

On 3 May and on 13 June 2024, the public deeds of CaixaBank, S.A.'s share capital reductions for €129,404,256 and €104,639,681, corresponding to the second and third share buy-back programmes respectively, were registered in the Mercantile Registry. The resulting share capital is represented by 7,268,087,682 shares at a nominal value of one euro each.

- > Through an CII³ published on 11 July 2024, CaixaBank informed that the Board of Directors, after receiving the appropriate regulatory approval, agreed to approve the fourth programme for the repurchase of treasury shares within the framework of the current strategic plan, with the following characteristics:
 - > Purpose: reduce CaixaBank's share capital by redeeming treasury shares acquired under the share buy-back programme.
 - > Maximum investment: maximum monetary amount of €500 million.
 - > Maximum number of shares: the maximum number of shares to be acquired during the execution of the programme will depend on the average price at which purchases take place. Added to the treasury shares held by CaixaBank at any given moment, these will not exceed 10% of the share capital.
 - > Term of the programme: The programme will commence at 31 July (communicated via ORI on the same day), which will be duly informed, and in any case it will have a maximum duration up to 31 January 2025. Nevertheless, the bank reserves the right to terminate the buy-back programme if the maximum monetary amount is reached earlier or if any circumstance arises which should so advise or require.

03. MACROECONOMIC TRENDS AND STATE OF THE FINANCIAL MARKETS

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

In a context marked by uncertainty stemming from latent geopolitical tensions and persistently tight monetary conditions, the global economy outperformed expectations during the first half of 2024. This robust performance was bolstered by robust labour markets, financial reserves for businesses and households, and a partial rebound in purchasing power for homes, buoyed by declining inflation and rising wages. However, beneath this global resilience lie divergent dynamics among major international economies, ranging from the steadfast economic activity in the US to a slowdown surrounding China and the signs of gradual recovery in the euro area.

GDP, PREVISION GROWTH^{1,2} 2024

ANNUAL CHANGE (%)

(1) CaixaBank Research forecasts for 2024.

(2) Real GDP.

ECONOMIC SCENARIO - EUROPE, SPAIN AND PORTUGAL

The eurozone economy rebounded during the first two quarters of 2024 after a lacklustre second half of 2023. Notably, the region managed to sustain quarter-on-quarter GDP growth rates of 0.3%. Nevertheless, no substantial acceleration in economic activity is anticipated for the remainder of the year. Industrial activity although has shown some improvement, it remains subdued due to the challenges faced by energy-intensive sectors. Simultaneously, households continue to maintain a cautious approach to spending, even in light of their significant accumulated savings. Consequently, CaixaBank Research forecasts that overall GDP growth in the euro area for 2024 would hover around 0.8%.

Inflation continued to moderate during the first half of 2024 thanks to lower food price pressures, albeit with a slow correction given the inflation inertia of services and due to energy no longer contributing to disinflation. In June, headline inflation dropped to 2.5% and core inflation, which excludes energy and food, remained at 2.9%.

The Spanish economy has exhibited remarkable dynamism in the first half of 2024, surpassing initial projections. This vitality was primarily driven by a notable upswing in tourism-related activities and robust labour market conditions. The GDP recorded a very dynamic growth rate in the first two quarters of the year, with quarter-on-quarter increases of 0.8% in both quarters. This positive trend is evident in the PMI manufacturing and services indices, both of which remained in expansionary territory (above 50 points). Additionally, household spending exhibited resilience, and job creation remained robust, with enrolment surpassing 21 million workers — a record high. Inflation has resumed its downward trend, and in July, both the headline inflation and the underlying, which excludes energy and unprocessed food, decreased to 2.8%, according to the preliminary data.

The Spanish economy's remarkable dynamism during the first half of the year has prompted us to revise our GDP growth forecasts upward: 2.4% for 2024 and 2.3% for 2025. We anticipate that domestic demand will strengthen, driven by demographic growth, rising real household disposable income and renewed investment. However, external demand's positive contribution will gradually diminish, even as exports recover, due to accelerated imports. Key downside risks arise from the geopolitical environment. However, there are also upside risks, including potential growth in private consumption due to the elevated household savings rate and significant migration flows.

The Portuguese economy has also exceeded expectations in the first half of 2024. In the first quarter of 2024, GDP grew by 0.8% quarter-on-quarter, driven by external demand, which contributed one percentage point to the quarter-on-quarter growth. In the second quarter, despite the greater dynamism of domestic demand, especially investment, GDP slowed to a quarter-on-quarter rate of 0.1%, due to the negative contribution of external demand given the rise in imports. Headline inflation fell to 2.8% in June and core inflation to 2.3%. We expect upward pressures to gradually ease over the year, although there will be occasional spikes, bringing the average in 2024 to 2.5% compared to 4.3% in 2023.

STATE OF THE FINANCIAL MARKETS

In June, the ECB made its first interest rate cut, reducing rates by 25 basis points. This decision was supported by positive monetary transmission, a decline in inflation and increased confidence that inflation would eventually reach the target of 2%. However, inflation is expected to display greater volatility in the upcoming months due to base effects resulting from the gradual removal of measures implemented during the energy crisis. Additionally, disinflationary pressures are likely to impact inertial components, particularly services. The ECB's cautious message accompanied this rate cut. By the end of June, financial markets were anticipating two additional interest rate cuts in 2024. In contrast, at the close of 2023, expectations had been for a total of six rate reductions throughout the year. In view of the progress in the disinflationary process, the central banks have adjusted their communication with the aim of beginning a process of rate cuts in mid-2024. This expectation of an easing of monetary policy is dependent, nonetheless, on inflation continuing to fall towards 2%.

Furthermore, the Federal Reserve maintained a cautious stance and adjusted its rate cut projections. In December 2023, the Fed signalled the possibility of a 75 basis points reduction in rates throughout 2024. However, by June 2024, it revised its outlook to a more modest 25 basis point cut. Consequently, financial markets also recalibrated their expectations, shifting from anticipating 150 basis point cuts to expecting only 50 basis point reductions by the end of the first half of 2024.

In this context, the financial markets adjusted upwards its expectations for the interest rates in the coming quarters. This led to rises in the long tranches of the European and US sovereign debt of around 20 basis points in the second quarter and 50 basis points so far this year. Thus, the 10-year Treasury closed June at 4.4%, and the 10-year Bund at 2.5%. Furthermore, in the eurozone, the early legislative elections in France in June led to significant uncertainty and a rise in the risk premiums, which in France increased by 30 basis points in the second quarter. In Spain and Portugal, the rise in the risk premium was more moderate in the second quarter, approximately 5 basis points. The European stock markets were also affected by this increase in uncertainty, generally closing the quarter in the red, the French CAC 40 index leading with an 8.9% drop. However, despite these corrections, the European stock markets closed the first half of the year in the green. In the US, the S&P 500 and the Nasdaq 100 closed the second quarter in the green, once again thanks to the good performance of the high-cap tech companies. In the foreign exchange market, the strength of the dollar stands out in a context of less rate cuts expected by the Fed. In the second quarter, the dollar slightly appreciated against the euro, which also suffered the political uncertainty, and the yen, which has been unable to curb its depreciation in recent quarters.

The change in attributable profit in the second quarter of 2024 (€1,670 million), when compared to the previous quarter (€1,005 million), up 66.2%, was mainly due to the following:

- > Net interest income reached €2,791 million and grows slightly in the quarter (0.4%), following, among others, the improvement in the contribution of the fixed-income portfolio, issuances and by financial institutions, which offset the lower contribution of the customer business, in spite of the higher production of loans.
- > Revenues from wealth management (+2.6%) show a good performance, boosted by the increase in assets managed. Revenues from protection insurance grew 5.3% and include in the second quarter one-off income from insurance distribution. Banking fees grew 6.0%, both recurring (+5.2%) and non-recurring (+11.0%) fees.
- > Other income is impacted by one-off expenses in both quarters. Recognition in the first quarter of 2024 of the banking tax for €-493 million and an estimate of the Spanish property tax for €-21 million, versus BFA's and Telefónica's dividend of €45 million and €43 million, respectively, in the second quarter of 2024.
- > Allowances for insolvency risk drop 18.6% in the quarter. Other charges to provisions increase 12.4%. Higher losses on the disposal of assets and others following the recognition of one-off asset write-downs.

The change in attributable profit in the second quarter of 2024 (€1,670 million), when compared to the same quarter of the previous year (€1,281 million), up 30.3%, was mainly due to the following:

- > Net interest income reached €2,791 million after growing 14.3%, due to the customer spread increase and higher contribution by financial institutions mainly due to a higher liquidity.
- > Revenues from wealth management (+9.9%) show a good performance, boosted by the increase in assets managed. Revenues from protection insurance grew 15.7% due to the increase in volume of the life-risk product portfolio with respect to the previous year and one-off income from insurance distribution in the second quarter of 2024. Banking fees grew 1.5% due to a higher contribution of non-recurring fees.
- > Other income is impacted by the contribution paid to the SRF of €-164 million only in the second quarter of 2023.

(1) Annualised quarterly income/cost to average total assets in the quarter.

Net interest income

Net interest income totalled €5,572 million (up 20.5% with respect to 2023). This increase is due to:

- > Higher income from loans mainly due to an increase in the average rate, as a result of the positive impact of market interest rates on the portfolio indexed to variable rates and on the rates of the new production.
- > Higher contribution of the fixed-income portfolio mainly due to the rate rise.
- > Higher contribution to net interest income by financial institutions mainly due to the impact of a higher excess liquidity.

INTEREST RATES (average rates in %)

These effects have been partially reduced by:

- > Higher costs of customer deposits due to a rate increase and higher average volume.
- > Higher cost of institutional financing, impacted by a rate increase from the repricing of issuances changed to variable rate due to the rise of the rate curve and a higher average volume.

Net interest income in the quarter increases 0.4% with respect to the previous quarter. The key aspects are as follows:

- > Higher income of loans and advances, positively impacted by a higher average volume and reduced by the lower rate due to the downward review of the interest rates.
- > Higher contribution of the fixed-income portfolio due to the rate rise.
- > Higher contribution to net interest income by financial institutions mainly due to the impact of a higher liquidity.

These effects have been partially reduced by:

- > Higher costs of customer deposits due to a higher volume and an increase in the average rate. This cost includes the effect of the conversion into floating interest by means of interest-rate hedges established for a limited amount, the negative impact of which is reduced between quarters including the decline in the interest curve.

The customer spread fell by 6 basis points in the quarter to 3.58%, due to the increase of the cost of deposits (3 basis points) and the drop in return on lending activity (3 basis points).

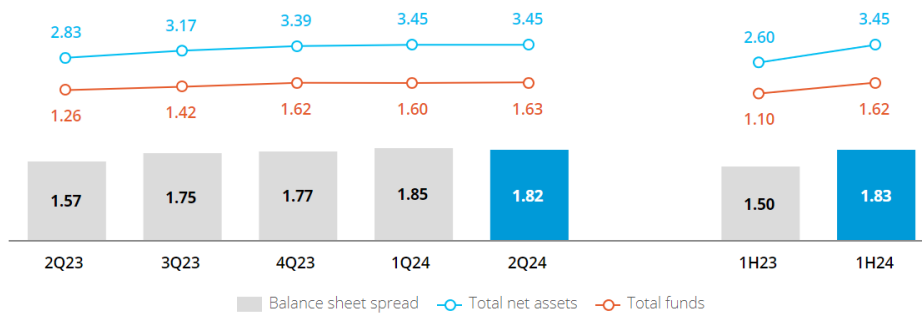

CUSTOMER SPREAD, GROUP (%)

(1) Customer deposit costs excluding hedges and FX and international branch deposits of CaixaBank ex BPI amount to (in bps): 81 in 2Q24, 75 in 1Q24, 65 in 4Q23, 48 in 3Q23 and 34 in 2Q23.

The balance sheet spread decreased 3 basis points in the quarter, mainly due to the lower return on lending activity impacted by the drop in the rate curve and the higher costs of deposits.

(1) To help readers interpret the information contained in this report, the following aspects should be taken into account:

- > "Other assets with returns" and "Other funds with cost" relate largely to the Group's life insurance activity. Net interest income mainly includes the net return on assets under the insurance business maintained to pay ordinary claims, as well as the Group's financial margin for short-term savings insurance products. It also includes the income from financial assets under the insurance business, and an expense for interest that includes the capitalisation of the new insurance liabilities is recognised at a very similar interest rate as the rate of return of asset acquisition. The difference between this income and the expense is not significant.
- > Financial institutions on the liabilities side includes repurchase transactions with the Public Treasury.
- > The balances of all headings except "Other assets" and "Other funds" correspond to balances with returns/cost. "Other assets" and "Other funds" incorporate balance items that do not have an impact on the Net interest income and on returns and costs that are not assigned to any other item.

ALLOWANCES FOR INSOLVENCY RISK AND OTHER CHARGES TO PROVISIONS

- > Allowances for insolvency risk amounted to €-487 million in the first half (+6.7% with respect to the same period of the previous year) and €-218 in the second quarter (-18.6% when compared to the previous quarter and +8.9% with respect to the second quarter of the previous year), enabling high risk coverage levels via provisions.
- > The cost of risk (last 12 months) came to 0.29%.
- > The provision models have been calibrated with forward-looking macroeconomic scenarios under the IFRS 9 accounting standard. The half-yearly recalibration process of models in this second quarter, together with the coverage of other risks, has resulted in assigning collective provisions at a specific level, without therefore changing the overall coverage level of the portfolio.

At 30 June 2024, the Group keeps a collective provision fund for €551 million (includes the PPA funds).

- > Other charges to provisions mainly reflects the coverage of future contingencies and impairment of other assets.

The year-on-year performance (€-194 million in the first half of 2024 versus €-100 million in the previous year) includes:

- > In the first half of 2024, among others, increase of charges to provisions due to legal contingencies with respect to the first half of 2023 and to a lesser extent provisions associated with the early retirement scheme in BPI.
- > The first half of 2023 included, among others, the extraordinary release of provisions which were no longer necessary and the release of provisions established in 2021 for €17 million to cover asset write-downs from the plan to restructure the commercial network¹, following the merger with Bankia. The provision established in 2021 was used in its entirety at the end of 2023, without recognising any release in 2024 in this respect.

The quarterly evolution of 2023 includes the recognition in the third quarter of €-31 million following the award estimated from Mapfre's claim in the arbitration procedure initiated after ending the bancassurance partnership between Mapfre and Bankia.

GAINS/(LOSSES) ON DISPOSAL OF ASSETS AND OTHERS

- > Gains/(losses) on disposal of assets and others includes, essentially, the proceeds on asset sales and write-downs.

The quarterly evolution is impacted by the recognition in the second quarter of 2024 of extraordinary provisions of real estate and write-downs of intangible assets (in the item Other).

The item Other includes, up to the fourth quarter of 2023, the materialisation of asset write-downs within the framework of the aforementioned plan to restructure the commercial network, as well as the recognition of write-downs of intangible assets in the last quarter of 2023.

CREDIT RISK QUALITY

NON-PERFORMING LOANS AND NON-PERFORMING LOAN RATIO¹ (€ MILLION / %)

PROVISIONS AND COVERAGE RATIO¹ (€ MILLION / %)

(1) Calculations include loans and contingent liabilities.

- > Non-performing loans stand at €10,466 million, down €328 million in the quarter and €49 million in the year, following the active management of non-performing assets, which includes portfolio sales.

The inclusion of default criteria as per the prudential framework⁽²⁾ ended in the second quarter, with no organic deterioration of these exposures. The inclusion of these criteria, which began at the end of 2023, led to an increase in stage 3 of €579 million in the first half of 2024. Following this process, practically the entire portfolio identified as default under the prudential criteria⁽³⁾ will also be recorded as stage 3. This inclusion of criteria is supplementary to those required by the applicable accounting standards.

- > The NPL ratio slightly drops to 2.7% in the quarter (also 2.7% stripping out the effect of the advance of double payments made to pension holders in June)
- > Provisions on insolvency risk stood at €7,301 million, establishing the coverage ratio at 70% (73% at the end of the previous year)

(2) As established in the Guidelines on the definition of default, EBA/GL/2016/07.

(3) The key criteria for a prudentially defaulted transaction not to be classified as stage 3 can be summarised in 3 main cases:

- > Difference in the consideration of the default date. The default date in the prudential view is set when the overdue balances exceed certain thresholds (€100 for the retail portfolio and 1% overdue of total debt, and €500 in the non-retail portfolio and 1% overdue of total debt), and it is maintained while the defaults continue to exceed them, even after partial collections. In the accounting view, the date of the oldest receipt in default was updated.
- > The existence of a cure period only in the prudential view, which holds the transaction in default for 3 months from the moment the debtor/transaction becomes current.
- > In the prudential view, all the debtor's positions are carried over to default in the case of legal persons, whereas in the accounting view there had to be more 20% in default to produce such a carry-over.

The NPL ratio for "Other" dropped at the end of the second quarter, partially due to the advance made to pension holders. Stripping out this effect, it would have been 4.0%, with out a significant impact on the overall NPL ratio.

08. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

- > The Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio stands at 12.2%. The extraordinary impact from the third SBB programme for €500 million ended in May 2024¹ has resulted in -22 basis points. At the end of June, it prudently includes the extraordinary impact of the fourth SBB programme announced in July¹, which is deducted in full by the maximum amount of the programme (€500 million, -22 basis points).

The change in the CET1 ratio in the first half, up 28 basis points (of which +19 bps in the quarter), is mainly caused by the organic growth (+101 bps, of which +66 bps in the quarter), reduced by the forecast of dividend charged to this year (payout 60%), AT1 payment coupon (-75 bps, of which -46 bps in the quarter) and the performance of the markets and other factors (+3 bps, of which -1 bps in the quarter).

- > The internal CET1 target ratio is set between 11.5% and 12%, which implies a margin of between approximately 300 and 350 basis points in relation to the SREP requirements.
- > The Tier 1 ratio reaches 14.0%. In this quarter, the call was executed for €395 million for the remaining part of a previous AT1 issue repurchased in the first quarter.
- > The Total Capital ratio stood at 16.3%.
- > The leverage ratio stood at 5.6%.
- > On 30 June, the subordinated MREL ratio reached 23.7% and the total MREL ratio 26.9%. Two issuances of Senior non-preferred debt were carried out this quarter, one for 100 million Australian dollars and another for €60 million.

CHANGE IN CET1

- > Similarly, CaixaBank is subject to minimum capital requirements on a non-consolidated basis. The CET1 ratio under this perimeter reached 11.7%.
- > BPI is also compliant with its minimum capital requirements. Capital ratios are as follows: CET1 of 13.8%, Tier1 of 15.2% and Total Capital of 17.5%.
- > In terms of regulatory requirements, the Group's domestic systemic risk buffer remained at 0.50% for 2024. The countercyclical buffer is estimated at 0.13% for June 2024, considering the buffer's update in certain countries where CaixaBank has credit exposure.

(1) See section 2. "Key information".

- > As a result, the capital requirements for June 2024 are as follows:

Minimum requirements 2024
	Total	Pillar 1	Pillar 2R	Buffers
CET1	8.62%	4.50%	0.98%	3.13%
Tier 1	10.45%	6.00%	1.31%	3.13%
Total capital	12.88%	8.00%	1.75%	3.13%

- > At 30 June, CaixaBank has a margin of 343 basis points, equating to €8,017 million, until the Group's MDA trigger.
- > As for the MREL requirement, in March 2024 the Bank of Spain communicated to CaixaBank the Total and Subordinated minimum MREL requirements that it must meet from then on:

	Requirement in % RWAs (including current RBC)	Requirement in % LRE
Total MREL	24.67%	6.20%
Subordinated MREL	16.63%	6.20%

- > The Group's level of capital adequacy confirms that the applicable requirements would not lead to any automatic restrictions according to the capital adequacy regulations, regarding the distribution of dividends, variable remuneration, and the interests of holders of Additional Tier 1 capital securities.
- > On 3 April 2024, the bank paid its shareholders 0.3919 euros, gross, per share, corresponding to the ordinary dividend charged to 2023 profits. This dividend distribution amounts to €2,889 million and is equivalent to 60% of the consolidated net profit of 2023.
- > The Board of Directors approved on 1 February 2024 the dividend plan¹ for 2024, which consists of a cash distribution between 50% and 60% of the consolidated net profit, to be paid in two cash payments: an interim dividend to be paid during November 2024, amounting to between 30% and 40% of the consolidated net profit for the first half of 2024 profit, and a final dividend in April 2025, subject to final approval at the General Meeting of Shareholders. In accordance with the aforementioned dividend plan the corresponding minimum distributed amount for the interim dividend stands at around €800 million. The relevant agreement by the Board of Directors and the definite interim dividend amount will be determined in October.
- > With regard to the share buy-back programmes framed within the current Strategic Plan, the second SBB was completed on 3 January² (€500 million; 129,404,256 shares redeemed) and the third³ SBB was completed on 10 May (also for €500 million and 104,639,681 shares redeemed).
- > In addition, the fourth SBB was announced in the month of July (also for €500 million, deducted in its entirety from the capital adequacy of June), which will commence at some point after 31 July, with a maximum duration up to 31 January 2025.

09 | SEGMENT REPORTING

09. SEGMENT REPORTING

This section shows financial information on the different business segments of the CaixaBank Group, configured as follows:

- > Banking and Insurance: shows earnings from the Group's banking, insurance, asset management, real estate and ALCO's activity mainly in Spain.
- > BPI: covers the income from the BPI's domestic banking business, essentially in Portugal.
- > Corporate centre: shows earnings, net of funding expenses, from the investees BFA, BCI, Coral Homes, Gramina Homes and Telefónica (up until its sale in June 2024).

In addition, the Group's excess capital is allocated to the corporate centre, which is calculated as the difference between the Group's total equity and the capital assigned to the Banking and Insurance business, BPI and the investees allocated to the corporate centre. Specifically, the allocation of capital to these businesses and investees takes into account the 11.5% capital consumption for risk-weighted assets, as well as any applicable deductions. Liquidity is the counterpart of the excess capital allocated to the corporate centre.

The operating expenses of these business segments include both direct and indirect costs, which are assigned according to internal distribution methods. The corporate expenses at Group level are assigned to the corporate centre.

(1) At VidaCaixa Group level prior to consolidation adjustments in CaixaBank

The profit attributable to the VidaCaixa Group in the first half of 2024 stands at €602 million, up 15.0% with respect to the same period of 2023:

- > Net interest income mainly includes the net return on assets under the insurance business maintained to pay ordinary claims, as well as the Group's financial margin for short-term savings insurance products.
It also includes the income from financial assets under the insurance business, and an expense for interest that includes the capitalisation of the new insurance liabilities. This at a very similar interest rate as the rate of return of asset acquisition. The difference between this income and the expense is not significant.
- > Share of profit/(loss) of entities accounted for using the equity method mainly shows the contribution made by SegurCaixa Adeslas, 49.9% of which is owned by VidaCaixa, the year-on-year performance of which is impacted by the recognition, in the first half of 2023, of income associated with the revaluation of the stake held in IMQ after the participation increase.
- > Net fee and commission income¹ mainly includes fees and commissions received by VidaCaixa for managing pension plans, net of fees and commissions paid to CaixaBank, S.A. and its subsidiaries for distributing them.
- > The Insurance service result includes the results of life-savings, life-risk and Unit Linked products, net of expenses directly attributable to the contracts.

(1) The commercial network in Spain also receives fees for distributing its insurance products through the branch network, although these fees are not included in the income statement for the insurance business, because they relate instead to the banking business ex insurance.

BPI

Profit from the banking business of BPI amounted to €266 million, up 43.5% with respect to the same period in 2023 (€185 million).

- > The Net interest income corresponds to the net between the cost of financing the investee business and the income from the liquidity associated with the Group's excess capital.
- > Dividend income amounted to €88 million and includes the dividend from Telefónica for €43 million (€61 million in 2023) and BFA for €45 million (€73 million in 2023).

The income from Telefónica decreases mainly due to the reduction in the stake held in 2024 with respect to 2023 at the time of dividend accrual. In accordance with the dates of Telefónica's Annual General Meetings in which both dividends were approved, in 2024 the dividend is recognised in the second quarter instead of in the first quarter, as it was recognised in the previous year.

The year-on-year drop in BFA's dividend income is impacted, among others factors, by the lower exchange rate of the Angolan kwanza applied in 2024 with respect to the rate applied to the dividend recognised in the previous year.

- > Trading income mainly includes the impact of the fluctuations of the Angolan kwanza in relation to the payment of dividends from BFA after its accounting accrual. This impact was especially significant due to the depreciation of the Angolan currency in the second quarter of 2023.

APPENDIX 1: ALTERNATIVE PERFORMANCE MEASURES

In addition to the financial information prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs), this document includes certain Alternative Performance Measures (APMs) as defined in the guidelines on Alternative Performance Measures issued by the European Securities and Markets Authority on 30 June 2015 (ESMA/2015/1057) (the "ESMA guidelines"). In accordance with these guidelines, following is a list of the APMs used, along with a reconciliation between certain management indicators and the indicators presented in the consolidated financial statements prepared under IFRS. Figures are presented in millions of euros unless the use of another unit is stated explicitly.

This document is intended exclusively for information purposes and does not aim to provide financial advice or constitute in any way an offer to sell, exchange, or acquire, or an invitation to acquire any type of security or any financial service or product of CaixaBank, S.A. (hereinafter, "CaixaBank" or the "Company" indistinctly) or of any other company mentioned herein. Anyone who purchases a security at any time must do so solely on the basis of their own judgement and/or the suitability of the security for their own purposes, and exclusively on the basis of the public information set out in the documentation drawn up and registered by the issuer in the context of the specific security issue or offer, having availed themselves of the corresponding professional advice if they consider this necessary or appropriate in accordance with the circumstances, and not on the basis of the information set out in this document.

This document may contain statements relating to projections or estimates in respect of future business or returns, of a financial and non-financial nature (e.g. ESG performance targets), particularly in relation to information regarding investments and investees, prepared primarily on the basis of estimates made by the Company. While these projections and estimates reflect the Company's current opinion or view of future business prospects, certain risks, uncertainties and other relevant factors may cause the actual results or outcome to be substantially different to what the Company currently expects. These variables include market conditions, macroeconomic matters, regulatory and government requirements, fluctuations in national or international stock markets or in interest and exchange rates, changes in the financial position or our customers, debtors or counterparties, as well as our capacity to meet ESG expectations and obligations, which can mainly depend on the actions of third parties, such as our decarbonisation targets, etc. These risk factors, together with any others mentioned in past or future reports, could adversely affect our business and the levels of performance and results described, including the ESG performance targets, which may differ substantially. Other unknown or unforeseeable factors, or in which there is a degree of uncertainty about their performance and/or potential impact, could also make the results or outcome differ significantly from those described in our projections and estimates.

Past financial statements and previous growth rates are no guarantee of the future performance, results or price of shares (including earnings per share). Nothing contained in this document should be construed as constituting a forecast of future results or profit. Furthermore, this document was drawn up on the basis of the accounting records held by CaixaBank and the other Group companies, and includes certain adjustments and reclassifications to apply the principles and criteria operated by the Group companies on a consistent basis with those of CaixaBank, such as in the specific case of Banco Portugués de Investimento (BPI). Therefore, certain aspects of the information provided herein may not match the financial information reported by this bank.

This document features data supplied by third parties generally considered to be reliable information sources. However, the accuracy of the data has not been verified. None of the directors, officers or employees of the company are obliged, either explicitly or implicitly, to ensure that these contents are accurate or complete, or to keep them updated or correct them in the event any deficiencies, errors or omissions are detected. Moreover, in reproducing these contents via any medium, CaixaBank may introduce any changes it deems suitable and may partially or completely omit any portions of this document it chooses. CaixaBank assumes no liability for any discrepancies with this version. The contents of this disclaimer should be taken into account by any persons or entities that may have to make decisions or prepare or share opinions relating to securities issued by CaixaBank, including, in particular, decisions reached by the analysts and investors that rely on this document. All such parties are urged to consult the public documentation and information CaixaBank submits to the Spanish securities market regulator (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores, CNMV). Be advised that this document contains unaudited financial information.

This report contains a number of the Alternative Performance Measures (APMs) set out in the Guidelines on Alternative Performance Measures published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on 5 October 2015 (ESMA/2015/1415) ("the ESMA Guidelines") so as to provide a clearer picture of the company's financial performance and situation. Please be advised that these APMs have not been audited. These measures constitute additional information and should be treated accordingly. In no event are they intended to replace the financial information drawn up in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). Moreover, the way the Group defines and calculates these measures may differ to the way similar measures are calculated by other companies. As such, they may not be comparable. Please consult the report's section that includes the details of the APMs used. The report also provides a reconciliation between certain management indicators and the indicators presented in the consolidated financial statements prepared under IFRS. The Group has applied IFRS 17: "Insurance Contracts" and IFRS 9: "Financial Instruments" to the assets and liabilities under the insurance business as of 1 January 2023 and hence the income statement for the fiscal year 2022 and the balance sheet at 31 December 2022 have been restated for comparative purposes. The Group has also considered the IFRS 9 requirements, an accounting standard that it had already been applying to recognise and measure its financial assets and liabilities in its banking business. The financial information published in the Business Activity and Results Report of the first quarter of 2023 has been restated in the second quarter after obtaining more detailed information (Other Relevant Information of 5 May 2023). See 'Relevant aspects in the half' and 'IFRS 17 and IFRS 9 Restatement'.
